ONE man thought the earth would last at most, a few million years. Because the sun "burning up" so rapidly, could not last longer.
Physicists tell geologists it was silly to say that the world had existed for hundreds of millions of years, because the sun, big as it is, could not have gone burning all that time.

NOW we know the sun isn't merely a big lump, and a New York agency offers cash for the best guesses on sources of the sun's gigantic energy.

It may be "intra-atomic" energy caused by release of atomic energy under the sun's conditions of heat and pressure.

It is assumed also that the sun possesses great masses of radio active material supplying light and heat to our corner of the universe.

ONE thing is certain and can be proved. The sun's heat, light and heat continue to warm this little corner of Jupiter and the rest of our solar system, for hundreds of millions of years more. There is plenty of room, your corner lot to go up in size.

TURKEY BUILDS CITY AS MODERN CAPITAL

Will Be Modern Garden Spot Adjoining Present Ankara, It Is Said

Berlin, March 8.—Kemal Pasha, the George Washington of modern Turkey, is building himself a new capital.

It will be a modern garden city adjoining the present Ankara and when it is finished it is to be a worthy symbol of the new Turkey which Kemal Pasha has created.

The construction of a new capital became necessary because Constantinople is too exposed to foreign guns, and because the ambassadors of foreign powers refused to move from Constantinople to Ankara as long as that town consisted of only one dusty, Asiatic Melat.

Fashionable

Building new capital is becoming quite fashionable. The King of Afghanistan is building a new capital near the old Kabul, and Queen Marie of Rumania hopes to build a new worship capital than Bucharest if she is able to raise a loan in America.

The plans for the new Ankara, just approved, have been made by Hugo Otto Werner, noted garden architect of Berlin. German architects and city planners have also made the plans for the new Afghan capital.

Many Parks

Under Werner's plan, the new Turkish capital will have more parks and trees than any other city in the world. The old Ankara is to be freed of its malarial swamp and then relegated to curiosity place for visiting tourists.

There will be a central city park of 150 acres with a rose garden containing 50,000 roses, and artificial lake of 400 square meters, and a planetarium.

There will also be a concert park holding 10,000 people, and a children's park with a wading pool.

Both old and new city are to be surrounded by a green ring of forests, parks and lodges.

Intimate Glimpses into the Lives of Members of the Marion County Bar

BY HARRY S. ELLIOTT

WHEN the state legislature was in session 15 years ago the district which includes Marion County was represented by a senator who was continued from one session to another because of certain definite steps should be taken to reorganize the state's system of local government.

Having such convictions, he proceeded to incorporate them in four separate legislative proposals which were submitted to the tender mercies of the general assembly.

If enacted into law, the measures would have accomplished this:

Abolishment of the office of coroner.

Merge of the offices of county treasurer, recorder and auditor, placing all in charge of the auditor.

Appointment of the county surveyor by the board of commissioners instead of having that office elected.

Abolishment of all township offices and transfer of their duties to the county commissioners.

Too Many Offices

The senator who sponsored the bills based them on the belief that there were too many offices and divisions of local government. He maintained that efficiency and economy would be greatly increased through mergers and concentration of authority.

All of the bills were defeated but the result by no means altered the views of the author. He holds the same views to this day and his theories have the support of many citizens who have made a study of the problem of community government.

The senator in question was Louis E. Myers, Marion attorney who has his office at 122½ S. Main at.

Changes similar to those pro-

posed in the four bills introduced by him are certain to come eventually in response to the demand for a more modern and efficient system of public offices, Myers believes. He is confident that the trend of opinion in that direction will gain added momentum as citizens and lawmakers come to realize that methods adopted many years ago are not abreast with the times.

Establishes Record

Not all bills sponsored by Myers as state senator met the fate of these four proposals. Although in the senate only two years, the Marion attorney established the record of having 23 of his measures enacted into law. Most of them were merely routine bills but the size of the list was sufficient to show that the senator was by no means using his time in Columbus for vacation purposes.

As senator, Myers represented a district comprising seven central Ohio counties. He was elected in 1914 on the Republican ticket, although the district was strongly Democratic, and served during the administration of Frank B. Willis as governor.

This was the only public office ever held by Myers, who has at all other times devoted his entire career strictly to the practice of law. His career as a lawyer started in the city of Marion on his twenty-third birthday, 33 years ago, and he has practiced continuously here since that time.

Myers finished his legal education in the law school of the University of Cincinnati when he had six months to go before attaining legal age. As a consequence, he was forced to wait a half year before being admitted to the bar.

He was the youngest member of his graduating class and stood very near the top of the class in the average of grades.

Studied Law at Home

Prior to attending college,

Myers studied law at his home, located on a farm near Latrobe, where he was born and spent the earlier years of his life.

Aide from his work on the farm, assisting his father, proved to be his only occupation ever followed by Myers.

Although a third of a century has passed since he lived on the old home farm, one habit formed by Myers as a result of this early experience remains with him to the present day. He has never broken away from the custom of starting to work early, not quite at daylight, the hour when the old-time farmer climbed out of bed, but nevertheless considerably in advance of the time when other Marion attorneys and professional men generally are found up and headed for their offices.

Business can be found at any place of business practically any morning at 7 o'clock and sometimes earlier. This schedule he has kept up almost invariably since the first day that he hung out his shingle 23 years ago.

Born 1874

Myers was born in Bowling Green Township, Oct. 6, 1874. His father, William J. Myers, is now deceased and his mother, Mrs. Emma Myers, resides on a farm north of Latrobe.

It was while attending high school at Latrobe that he made up his mind to follow law for a life work. This decision came largely as the result of his having attended hearings in the court of his uncle, G. N. Myers, then justice of the peace in Montgomery Township. There the young student frequently heard J. F. McNeal, J. C. Johnston, Boston G. Young, W. E. Scoffield, D. H. Crossinger and other prominent Marion attorneys try cases.

Myers is not the first of his family to figure in legal affairs in Marion County. His great grandfather, Thomas J. Anderson, served 21 years as associate judge of the Common Pleas Court in this country, his long service ending in 1850.

They were merely routine bills but the size of the list was sufficient to show that the senator was by no means using his time in Columbus for vacation purposes.

As senator, Myers represented a district comprising seven central Ohio counties. He was elected in 1914 on the Republican ticket, although the district was strongly Democratic, and served during the administration of Frank B. Willis as governor.

This was the only public office ever held by Myers, who has at all other times devoted his entire career strictly to the practice of law. His career as a lawyer started in the city of Marion on his twenty-third birthday, 33 years ago, and he has practiced continuously here since that time.

He was the youngest member of his graduating class and stood very near the top of the class in the average of grades.

Studied Law at Home

Prior to attending college,

At that time three judges made up the county tribunal.

Myers was married June 15, 1905, to Miss Ethel Barnett, whom he now resides at 121 Lincoln.

SOVIET BORDER GUARDS TAKE ALLEGED SMUGGLERS

Two overzealous Soviet border guards along the Persian frontier captured and executed in cold blood one of two alleged smugglers who were crossing the line on a horse and a camel. The dead "smuggler" turned out to be a Communist provincial official. The guards were convicted and sentenced to two years in jail for the slight mistake."

Such was the first result of an efficiency drive to stop the running of contraband into Russia from the south. The guard confessed at the trial that the two officials, who were arrested upon demand without resistance, had passes and official documents showing they had been sent across the line on a mission. But the guards said they believed the documents were forged.

Although Europe is thought to a tract an overlarge number of Americans each year, statistics show that less than half of one per cent of our citizens journey there annually.

The 5 Great Hazards

"It has been in this house fifty years. You can't find another piece like it. This, ladies and gentlemen, is genuine! What am I offered for it? These old treasures are going for a song. Give me a bid."

"As the auctioneer rattles on, the neighbors think of the old days of entertainment and open hospitality in that house. They wonder how long the proud and lonely mistress has been fighting off the inevitable."

WHILE presenting our Annual Statement showing Assets of $2,388,647,636—2 Billion, 388 Million Dollars—representing savings and investments of 25 million people in the United States and Canada, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company desires to make clear what a life insurance company can do, what it should do and what, so far, it has been unable to do toward meeting what have been called the five great hazards of life:

which may come early, before one's dependents have been provided for.

Accident
always sudden and often causing lessened earning power.

Sickness
which may cause want as well as suffering.

Dependent Old Age
which must seek charity if self-support is no longer possible.

Unemployment
which may bring distress to others in addition to the one unemployed.

Annuities for old age, protection in case of death, accident or sickness—almost every financial requirement can now be met by insurance. Only one problem is still unsolved—unemployment insurance—and that only because legislation permitting it has so far been refused. The day must come when every family can and will plan to meet every one of the five great hazards so that none of its members will ever face the need of charity.

The United States and Canada pay higher wages than other countries. Nearly all their workers earn enough to provide for both present and future needs. If they will but plan ahead they may have in their years of retirement, not merely bare existence, but real comfort.

Thousands of those interested in life insurance have asked how the family income should be expended. Send for our Home Budget Booklet which tells how much should be spent for necessities—food, housing, clothing, fuel—and how much should be laid aside for protection. It will be mailed free.

Marion County Officials Planning To Take Part In War Against Tuberculosis

Planning To Take Part In War Against Tuberculosis Which Began March 1 Intended Primarily To Advance Early Diagnosis of Disease as Most Effective Means of Checking Its Progress

Marion County officials of Marion are taking part in nationwide campaign against tuberculosis which began March 1. Dr. N. Siffrit, county health officer, announced today.

trom tuberculosis last year did not even know that they had the disease until it reached an advanced stage," Dr. Bishop says. "If they could have commenced the cure early enough most of them would still be living."

He states that it is for the purpose of discovering those who now have tuberculosis in its earliest stages that the "early diagnosis" campaign is being held.

TOLEDO DOCTOR KILLED, THREE OTHERS HURT

Pineville, Ky., March 5.—Dr. J. W. Morgan, Toledo, is dead, and his three companions are in a serious condition here today as the result of an automobile accident near here yesterday. Dr. Morgan was instantly killed when the auto he was driving went over a 50-foot embankment. The injured are: Miss Bertha Bloodheart, a nurse in Dr. Morgan's hospital; George Allison, Wauseon, and Mrs. Minnie Blue, Perrysburg. The four were enroute to Florida, it was reported.

PROGRESS SHOWN

Evidence of progress made in the war against tuberculosis is found in a report which shows that the disease caused 460 fewer deaths in Ohio in 1927 than in 1926. This sets the lowest death rate in Ohio's history, the disease claiming 4,623 lives in the state in 1927 and 5,085 in 1926.

Despite this decrease, the fact that a preventable disease caused more than 4,000 deaths in one year leaves the state no room for self-congratulation. Dr. Robert H. Bishop, Jr., of Cleveland, president of the Ohio Public Health Association, points out in a communication received by Dr. Siffrit.

SPRING FLOWERS

Ray Gottschall Discovers Elms in Home Garden

Spring flowers have arrived in at least one Marion garden, according to Ray Gottschall, Summitt, with whom horticulture is a hobby.

"Even with the snow and cold weather of the last month or two, or great single snowdrifts, are blooming in Gottschall's garden at the rear of his home. Not only one but two of the dainty bell-shaped flowers showed above the snow last Saturday.

"Although having closed up their petals they evidently were enjoying the neat white bedding of snow," Mr. Gottschall said. "Others are just coming through the ground and will be open in a few days."

"These are the first flowers to show in my garden this year. Last year crocus buds put in their appearance at an even earlier date, but snowdrifts were added last fall."

LAST RITES HELD FOR INFANT AT CEMETERY

Burial rites for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin E. Myers, who died four hours after birth at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the parents' home, 678 Florence, were conducted at Hopewell Cemetery, Magnetic Springs, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. J. V. Armstrong Taylor of Magnetic Springs officiated. The child's death was due to insomnia. The parents, Irvin E. and Bertha E. Myers, survive.

LAST RITES HELD FOR MRS. MARTHA ELLEN HORN

Last rites for Mrs. Martha Ellen Horn, widow of Amaziah Hutchinson Horn, whose death occurred Friday morning at her home, 207 Bradford St.

Relatives as well as the warmth from his nose passage to the head down into his chest. By dinner time the cold was in his lungs and his temperature was normal.

Doctors recommend Cherry Pectoral because it is as safe as the purest food. It not only stops coughing spells but penetrates and heals inflamed linings of the breathing passages. Almondized by the system, it quickly removes phlegm, helps reduce the "feverish" grippe feeling and drives out the cold. And it can be taken with safety at all times even before going outdoors.

Just a spoonful of Cherry Pectoral today and you will feel like a different person tomorrow. At all drugstores, 30c and twice as much in $1.00 hospital size.

TRY TO "SWEAT OUT" HER CHILD'S COLD

Mrs. L. W. Meade gave her little daughter, Dorothy, a hot bath followed by tablets and a hot lemonade in an effort to "sweat out" a stuffy cold. Then she applied salve to the child's chest and wrapped her up carefully in heavy blankets. But little Dorothy made the serious mistake of going outdoors the next day while the salve still kept the strength doses of Avery's Cherry Pectoral notes of her skin open. As a result she—a hospital certified mixture of wild caught fresh cold which became so serious the family doctor was called.

LOCAL COURT UPHELD IN DIVORCE ACTION

Appeals Tribunal Affirms Decision in Suit of Mrs. Virna Laucher

The District Court of Appeals has affirmed the decision of the Marion County Court of Common Pleas in denying application for divorce made by Mrs. Virna Laucher in her suit against Edward Laucher.

Official notice to that effect was received by the local clerk of courts from the district Court of Appeals today.

The lower court also was upheld in its ruling giving the custody of the two minor children of Mr. and Mrs. Laucher to have the children during the summer vacation months and Mrs. Laucher during the remainder of the year.

In her appeal action, Mrs. Laucher contended that because the court refused her divorce it had no authority to rule on the custody of the children.

Court proceedings involving the Laucher domestic affairs began about two years ago. In addition to the divorce action, Laucher sued Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Lawrence, parents of Mrs. Laucher, for alienation of her affection, asking judgment for $30,000. He was awarded $800 by the jury which heard the suit several months ago.

The law firm of Garhart & Warner represented Laucher and Mouser. Young & Mouser were attorneys for Mrs. Laucher and her parents.

Divorce, Attorney Granted

Divorce and alimony were awarded Mrs. Ada D. Freet following hearing of her suit against John Freet before Judge Scobell in Court of Common Pleas, this morning. The decree was granted on grounds of gross neglect.

Under the ruling, Freet is to pay $2500 alimony at the rate of $20 a month and also $5 a week for the support of their minor child. Custody of the child was awarded Mrs. Freet.

Judgment by Default

Judgments by default were awarded in three suits in the Court of Common Pleas, today, as follows:

Julius Bauer & Co. against Ralph McQuillen, $1,097.79.

Bindley Grocery Co. against John M. Latus, $127.12.

Hattie Dennis against Clara J. Mann, $630.

All were actions brought for collection of money alleged to be due on accounts.

Suit Dismissed

The divorce suit of Harris B. Weinstein against Rose A. Weinstein was dismissed this morning at costs of the plaintiff.

Demurrer

Demurrer filed by W. T. Jones, defendant in a suit brought by Hubert Beaughman to require fulfillment of a contract for purchase of real estate, was sustained today by Judge Scobell. The demurrer sought elimination of a clause in the petition.

In the suit of E. W. Boyer against E. B. Borders, an action for collection of an account, the defendant has been granted leave to plead by March 17.

Petition Filed

An intervening petition was filed by Armour & Co. in the suit of the Terry Provision Co. against John Felmetz, O. C. Houser and Jacob M. Houser, setting up a claim of $24.70 for merchandise. The action involves a meat market at the corner of Pearl and Columbia streets owned at different times by the three defendants.

AUGMENTED CHOIR GIVES PROGRAM AT TRINITY

An augmented choir, under the direction of Mrs. Karl W. Schell, was heard in a beautiful arrangement of vocal numbers presenting the life of Christ at a special song service last night at Trinity Baptist Church. The church auditorium was well-filled. Soloists were Mrs. Schell, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Shadaker, Misses Edith Brown and Rachel McAfee, I. H. Taylor and Dale Gorman. Miss Grace Durfee played the organ accompaniment.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Wayne Hill of Caledonia underwent an operation for appendicitis this morning at City Hospital.

REMOVED FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. C. J. Renabarger was removed from City Hospital to her home, 117 Garden-at, this morning in the M. H. Gender invalid car.

Floating universities are now a regular feature from America, and in addition hundreds of Americans are sending their children to the finishing schools of Switzerland, France, England and Germany.

EVERYTHING SHE ATE WOULD TURN TO A SOUR ACID

Konjola Relieved Her of Four Years Stomach Trouble.

MRS. LEA CLAPPER

"Konjola has completely ended my health troubles and I owe this medicine my independence," said Mrs. Lena Clapper, 408 South 17th St., Columbus, Ohio.

"Everything I ate would turn a sour acid in my stomach and the fermentation would cause a large quantity of gas to crowd around my heart. This made me short of breath and I would have terrible choking spells. I was continually belching a sour, strangling liquid into my throat and the dreadful gas pains would feel like someone sticking a knife into my sides."

"I started with Konjola because it was helping so many other people I knew, and it soon did everything claimed for it in my case. Now, every time I eat I agree with me and the gas pains, belching spells and shortness of breath never trouble me any more. Konjola is a wonderful medicine and I believe every sufferer should give it a trial."

Konjola is different than any other known remedy in this section. It contains twenty-two juices extracted from natural plants which invigorate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, to a more healthy action. The effect of Konjola on the entire system brings amazing relief in cases of suffering that had been going on for years. At the same time many weak and rundown systems have been restored to a new state of health through this compound. Such a vast number of men and women in this city have told of their experience with this new medical product until now Konjola is the most highly endorsed medicine that is known in this vicinity.

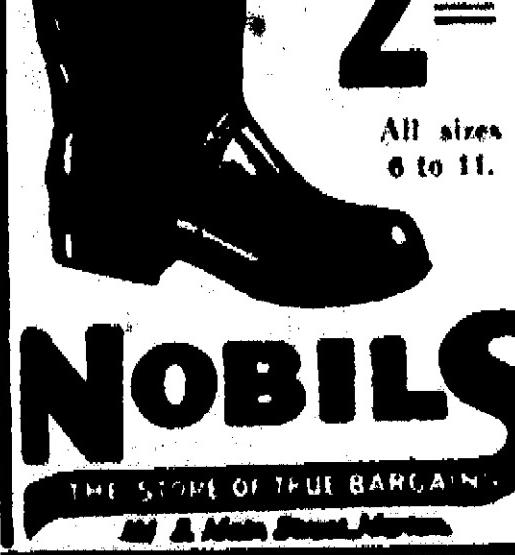

Konjola is strongly recommended here in Marion at Stump & Sams Pharmacy, and is also being sold by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this section.—Adv.

Daily Proverb—"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; but fools despise wisdom and instruction."

Among the items worthy of attention, if true, is the announcement that "bathing suits this year will be more meager than ever before."

The Caraway bill for the registration of lobbyists has been passed by the senate. If it becomes a law, it will probably develop the fact that some very small potatoes have been masquerading under some very high-sounding names.

On sales aggregating $57,287,853 in 1927, a corporation manufacturing and selling a substitute for coffee made a net profit of $11,288,442, which rather goes to show that the "Man from Wellville" has a pretty good business head.

Three experienced members of the Royal air force of Britain crashed to their deaths, Friday, and seven experienced fliers lost their lives in this country earlier in the week. Despite all claims to the contrary, flying in heavier-than-air machines must yet be classified as one of hazard.

A Boston woman is seeking a divorce, alleging that her husband, in an angry mood because she had a poor bridge hand, broke a table over her back, and we don't blame her a bit. He was utterly unreasonable. The practice in refined circles hereabouts is to beat 'em up only when they play their hands poorly.

"Thunderous applause" followed the announcement in the Canadian house of commons that the two airmen and their Eskimo guide, who had been forced down near the Arctic circle thirteen days before and given up for lost, had found their way and walked into the air base at Port Burwell, and then a government investigation of the crash was ordered. The legislators of the Old Dominion appear to have acquired, in a mild form, the Washington habit.

"I predict," says Sir Donald MacLean, "that before many years are over one of the regular subjects which the council of the League of Nations will be debating, not from a narrow but from an international point of view, will be the ravages of the liquor traffic throughout the world and the international measure that must be taken to mitigate so devastating a factor." That will come pretty near making the league anathema to the "personal liberty" crowd, if it never were before.

Fomented by Communists.

In response to the plea of the mayor of Pittston, Pennsylvania, that President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers of America, go to that place and bring together the warring factions there, the latter has disclaimed responsibility for the "unlawful acts of individuals" in the controversy there. In part President Lewis' telegram reads:

"I have given careful consideration to your telegram. The agreement existing between the anthracite coal operators and the United Mine Workers of America provides the machinery through which all matters of dispute between a coal company and its employees may be adjusted.

"If conferences between mine committees, company officials and officers of the district fail to adjust a matter of dispute, it becomes the proper function of the joint board of consultation to exercise its good offices in finding a basis of settlement in harmony with the provision of the agreement.

"This well established method of procedure should not be disturbed, nor the provisions of the agreement impaired by an action upon the part of the international union as long as a good faith effort is being made by the representatives of both sides to find a solution to the very grave problem underlying the present deplorable and regrettable conditions in Pittston."

And the telegram closes with this very significant paragraph:

"I express the hope that every member of our organization will remain calm throughout this trying period and that the activities of the agents of the communist party who are now in Luzerne county seeking to cause further confusion and disorder may not be able to influence our people to depart from the orderly, constructive policies of the United Mine Workers of America."

Many times the charge has been made in the past that labor troubles were started and maintained by communists and other direct-actionists, and as often it has been denied. There seldom has been labor trouble where violence has occurred without a development of this kind. The inclination, seemingly, often has been to take such charges as propaganda by employers. But in the present trouble in the Pennsylvania mines that assumption will hardly hold. When such a charge is supported by the president of the Mine Workers of America it will have to be accepted as having foundation of fact, despite any and all claims of the enemies of government—the entire batch of them ranging from the parrot pink to the anarchists—to the contrary.

The Doctrine of the New World.

Following so closely the declaration made at Geneva by a Latin-American delegate, that the Monroe doctrine is not the doctrine of the republics of the New world, but merely that of the United States alone, there is decided comfort in the utterance of Senor Lindolfo Collor, member of the Brazilian chamber of deputies, in an address before the Virginia general assembly.

With Dr. Alibio de Bliriara, personal representative of the president of Brazil, and a group of Brazilian delegates to the Pan-American congress at Havana, Senor Collor was a guest of Governor Byrd and the general assembly in Richmond, Friday, and took advantage of the occasion to say that the Monroe doctrine is not only a North American one, but a Brazilian doctrine as well, because, in truth, it is a proclamation of the political rights of all the New world.

"The simple fact that Brazil adhered to the Monroe doctrine is sufficient reason that in no way can we approach any manifestation tending to attribute to it an historical significance already extinct or a simple North American meaning," Senor Collor went on to say. "It is sufficient, however, to recognize the services already given by the Monroe doctrine, and which no one can doubt to conclude in a sane political criterion that what was yesterday continental can not be considered regional today."

Coming so timely as it does, we can hardly take the declaration of Senor Collor as other than a direct answer to the assault made upon the Monroe doctrine at Geneva. We haven't a doubt but what that is precisely what it was intended to be. Assuming such to be the case, it is evident that at least one of the South American republics is a supporter of the doctrine promulgated by President Monroe, and that one the largest and strongest of the southern continent.

The probable truth is that every South American republic, as well as those of Central America, wants the Monroe doctrine upheld; that every one of them realizes that it is a bulwark against Old world encroachment upon their rights if not upon their domain, and some of them must realize, as some of them have had occasion to realize, that they would not be in existence today had it not been for the influence of the Monroe doctrine. Mexico has reason to know this, Cuba has reason to know it, and so has Venezuela.

It is generally fairly safe to question the good faith of any assault by a republic of the New world on the Monroe doctrine, even though it be made by a duly-qualified representative of such republic. Latin-American politics, in one respect, is very much like politics in our own country. Those in office want to remain in and those out of office want to get into office. To do so, they must attack that which is and propose that which is not or inaugurate some plan or program which they feel may appeal to discontent and sweep them into office.

In this connection, it may be well to recall the course, both in Geneva and Havana, followed by Dr. Honoro Pueyrredon, of Argentina. His course in Havana in opposition to intervention in the affairs of Latin-American republics, it will be remembered, caused his resignation alike as Argentine ambassador to Washington and head of the Argentine delegation to the Havana conference. It is very possible that a similar fate may be met by the author of the assault upon the Monroe doctrine.

It is a significant fact that the various Latin-American republics keep on insisting that the secretary of state of the United States shall serve as head of the Pan-American union. Originally our secretary of state automatically became the head of the governing board of the union. At the fifth conference, five years ago, certain Latin-Americans jealous of this country, accomplished a change whereby the representative of any republic might become chairman. What was the result? Was there a change? There was not. Our secretary of state—whoever was selected by our president for the state portfolio—kept right on serving as chairman of the Pan-American union. Why? Because the Latin-American republics knew themselves and they knew us. They didn't trust themselves and they did trust us. They knew we were honest and that our secretary of state would be fair.

ONE YEAR AND NOTHING DONE.

Asay last May, certain congressmen, including Senator LaFollette, commenced yelling loudly for a special session of congress in order to consider flood relief and flood control. As there was nothing congress possibly could do except talk and play politics, and perhaps mess things, President Coolidge easily turned a deaf ear to their outcries, thereby incurring a certain amount of abuse, which he probably appreciated at its proper value.

By this treatment the parts are thoroughly cleaned and depleted of blood. Such applications made two or three times a week for some time will do much to relieve a catarrhal condition such as I have discussed today.

Needless to say, to get rid of a condition like this, is sure to improve the general health.

Vagrant Verse.

SNOW MELTING.

Warm rain does it, and next day

Almost all the snow's away.

Ground's quite soggy, roofs a mess.

The landscape less of loneliness.

Fair lonely, withered, drab-bird earth.

Waiting for the kiss of mirth,

The smile that through the sorid gloom

Brightens the mirage of bloom.

Entire to the wood—and here

The cuts are bare, or very near;

The moss will never hold you up,

Each tree hole is a drinking cup,

Holding its measure of the drink

That makes a very fair wank—

For in the melted snow, you see,

Nature dissolves in mystery.

Under the pines that last white fold

Of stained beauty gauds and goes!

Warm rain, fair sun—and naught can hold

The retention of the snows!

Only a soggy weeping land.

A land all tattered deep with mud.

A land with a mist in hand—

And spring's warm promise in the blood.

TOO EARLY TO FIGURE NECESSITIES.

The Chemistry of Thought.

BY GARRETT P. SERVIES.

The department of public relations of the University of Chicago announces that "proof that thinking is a chemical process is expected by University of Chicago physicists to result from successful experiments of Dr. Ralph Waldo Gerard, assistant professor of physiology, which have demonstrated for the first time that nerve impulses result from an oxidation process accompanied by the production of heat."

And Dr. Anton J. Carlson, chairman of the department of physiology at the university, is quoted as saying: "Thought processes, in the light of Dr. Gerard's experiments, are no more mysterious, or, if you please, just as mysterious, as the contraction of a muscle. The nerve process and the thought process are in the same category, that of a chemical reaction."

The university has granted funds to Dr. Gerard to construct delicate apparatus which will be used in an attempt to prove the chemical nature of the thought process.

It seems that physiologists have been divided on the subject of the nature of the nervous impulses, one side holding it to be a physical and the other a chemical reaction. If it is chemical, through oxidation, there should be an emission of heat, and Dr. Gerard has demonstrated such emission of heat by constructing an apparatus delicate enough to detect one-millionth of one-millionth of an ampere of electricity generated by the heat of the process.

This is a great achievement in scientific technique, and young Dr. Gerard will deservedly win a high place for himself in the ever-widening field of research. But the general reading public should not misunderstand such statements as that thinking is a chemical process, or a chemical reaction. Such a statement is merely descriptive of the change that occurs in the nerves when a man thinks. It is no sense accounts for the nature of thought itself. It can not, and does not pretend to explain how we think or how we summon and marshal our thoughts.

There was once a Ralph Waldo Emerson who wrote: "Beware when the great God lets loose a blinder on this planet. Then all things are at risk."

And again: "God enters by a private door into every individual."

That a chemical reaction accompanies thinking, who will be foolish enough to deny. We know now, thanks to Dr. Gerard, that it is a chemical and not a physical reaction. But we are not, therefore, to assume that it is nothing more than a reaction of matter as we ordinarily know matter. The let-loose-thinker of Emerson was something other than a collection of chemical substances. Chemistry and its laws are means to an end, but the end is not theirs, nor the beginning.

When Shakespeare wrote the sonnet beginning:

"When to the sessions of sweet silent thought,
I summon up remembrance of things past—" an ingenious device might have detected the generation in the cells of his brain of a million-millionth of an ampere of electricity. But was that the thought?" Or does that tell us anything whatever concerning the generation, the origin or the nature of the thought? It is far easier to believe with Emerson that "God entered by a private door" into the poet's mind.

I am not contending against advance of science. On the contrary, I want to see it go as far and as deep and as fast as it can. But I do protest when such discoveries are held up—though not by the discoverers themselves—as showing that man is now in the way of knowing the whole secret of his existence, and has no longer any reason to look higher than his own head. This tendency is found not so much among real leaders of science as among the crusaders against religion—not against any special form of religion, but against the fundamental idea of the existence of a higher power in the universe—who adopt for a war cry: "Kill the Beast!"—Copyright, 1928, International Feature Service, Inc.

At thirty, she is filled with a panic for fear she may get fat, or lose her husband to another woman, or acquire a double chin.

And at forty, she has reached the "dangerous age" and the panicky feeling that she may grow old and die without knowing romance. So she rushes into foolish flirtations, takes up aesthetic dancing, or gets all tangled up with a kindergarten lover half her age.

Even between the last dose of medicine and the last breath, she is still in panic, for her hair won't fit or they will forget to marble her hair, when she lies in her coffin.

It is this eternal and incomprehensible fear-complex which drives a woman to do every foolish desperate and reckless thing she does in life, from dieting herself into consumption to having her face lifted or rushing into marriage with the wrong man.

From going the pace and making a physical wreck of herself at twenty, to taking a specimen of herself at fifty.

From petting and gazing at sixteen to hanting and rolling at sixty.

A MAN never has a panic for fear nobody will admire him, love him, or marry him. He KNOWS he's "good!" And his only astonishment is that any woman should fail to recognize it!

What a pity woman can't just BE STILL and take life and love and live as they come—and let them GO, when they go! There are plenty of thrills to spread all the way over life, if a woman would only wait serenely and take them in season. But, alas, woman was born to suffer—and nobody can STOP her!

WALSH'S CANDIDACY THREATENS HOUSTON

Washington, March 5.—The candidacy of Senator Thomas J. Walsh, the Senate's famous "red" senator, for the Democratic presidential nomination is expected to give a shake-up in the Democratic party in New York and Second Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, who threatened to protest a "wavy" Democratic row at the Houston convention.

Walsh threw his hat into the Democratic ring with an announcement broadly declared that William G. McAdoo was behind his candidacy. This caused little surprise in Washington but it was looked upon as certain to provoke a bitter fight between the Walsh and Smith forces.

The effect on Reed's candidacy was problematical. One group of Capitol Hill politicians felt that Reed might emerge the winner if Smith, failing to win the nomination, concentrated his strength on defeating Walsh of Montana. Under such circumstances, it was said, Reed might win as a compromise between the two. Other Democratic leaders, however, thought an active campaign by Walsh would create such a deadlock that all three would be eliminated before Houston named a Democratic standard-bearer.

It was generally believed here that Walsh's entry would make William G. McAdoo's fight for the nomination far more difficult than with Reed as his only prominent antagonist.

PUT BOYS' SLAYER IN BARREN CELL

Attempts To Take
Life After Being Saved
From Mob

In Marion, Ind., March 5—Velma West, confessed slayer of her two sons, was confined today in a barren cell at the Indiana Harbor State Prison without furnishings of any kind except the prisoner from time to time the threat of self destruction.

Velma's cell was ordered last night by Capt. Edward Knight, warden, who had attempted to take his life by piercing his jugular vein with a sharp piece of a belt buckle.

Knight had ordered two guards to stand at the door to keep a constant watch on the prisoner.

Velma's second narrow confinement. The first came Saturday night of a mob which surrounded the Chicago, Ind., jail, where she had confessed that she and her sons, George, 9, and Edward, 7, had trapped themselves with wire across the ship canal, to their mother's promise that they were to go to see their grandmother in Marion.

Confession Revised

The confession was later revised in which she admitted he "pushed" her sons into the canal. He stated that he had no means to feed them.

Velma was found floating in the canal at Indiana Harbor, on Friday, and came to the surface about noon yesterday. Saturday morning, Chisholm, a 36-year-old World War veteran, was arrested as a suspect of the murders.

After several hours grilling, he confessed.

As word of the news spread, a mob gathered at the East Chicago jail and besieged the prisoner. As the mob was being dispersed to storm the lock-up, she was smuggled through a rear door and rushed to the Indiana Hospital.

Mrs. Helen Lawrence, mother of three children and Chisholm's "housekeeper," also is being held in connection with the crime. In his revised confession, Chisholm declared Mrs. Lawrence, regarding her children drove him to murdering them, but he denied she had any connection with the crime or even knew of its execution.

Isn't Three Years
A Long Time to Hold The Brakes
on Progress?

Isn't three years a long time to hold the brakes on progress? The people of Marion were first asked to grant the gas company a higher rate for gas in July 1924. The need for a better gas supply was clearly apparent and the company having acquired large acreage in Cambridge gas fields asked Marion to help augment her own gas supply by granting a slight increase in rate to aid the company in the then projected lines, stations and wells necessary to accomplish that purpose.

The citizenship of Marion generally approved that proposal, but the then city solicitor of Marion intervened at Columbus in the hearings before the Public Utilities Commission and prevented acceptance. And so the proposed lines to the Cambridge and other fields could not be laid and these fields were developed by other gas companies, and the gas rate case went on and is still unsettled. New conditions have come, not then foreseen, but every development has only served to more greatly strengthen the justice of the company's request, and the urgent need for a prompt settlement of the gas rate generally, and particularly as part and parcel of the solution of permanent gas fuel supply for Marion.

Your Gas Company has patiently tried to negotiate this matter but has been put off and the case dragged out before the City council and the Public Utilities Commission while political ends were served. Councilmen are anxious to do the will of the people and are disposed fairly toward the company's proposition. What they want is some appearance of public support to a settlement. Why shouldn't the men of Marion dispose of the business of Marion?

The Gas Company only asks what is fair and right. It appeals to the People of Marion for the same square deal that the customers of the Company have a right to expect and the Company positively assures. The Company asks only $1.00 for the first 500 cubic feet or any part thereof and 60c net per thousand cubic feet thereafter.

Forty-six other cities and towns served by this company are paying such a rate. The average for the United States is $1.22 per thousand cubic feet and the average heat unit value is 560 heat units compared with 1040 heat unit gas supplied Marion.

Will you give your Gas Company a chance to grow so that it can help Marion grow? The rate asked means so little to the individual but is vital to the Company. Will you support justice and fairness?

MANY FANS TO FOLLOW TEAMS

New Dover and Marysville Win in Games at Ohio Wesleyan Turnney

Marysville, March 5.—Two Union County basketball teams, the keepers of records for the past two years, will fight it out for better or worse on the basketball court at the Edwards gymnasium Saturday next Friday in the semi-final round of the Central District tournament. Hundreds of Union County fans will accompany the two teams to Delaware to witness the battle.

In the last round of the tournament Saturday night, New Dover defeated Gambier by 28 to 14 count, and Marysville knocked New Bremen out of the race by a 28 to 18 count. Magnetic Springs lost to Hyatts, present champions, by a 35 to 10 score.

The Marysville team had considerable trouble with New Bremen, although the latter was not considered as a strong opponent. New Bremen was leading by a 10 to 8 count at the half and continued baying an edge on the local until the last quarter. New Dover had very little trouble with Gambier and was in much better form than Marysville, according to spectators.

Simpson, the main cog in the Marysville defense, sustained a badly sprained ankle in the game and will probably be out of the line for Friday's game. This will leave an opening for Hutchinson, stellar New Dover guard, who is considered as one of the best forward entered in the district tournament. If it comes to the worst, and Simpson will not be in shape to play, Coach Knipe more will substitute Brown who is probably more effective in making baskets, but does not come up to the Simpson pace on the defensive.

Wink from St. Mary's

In the second round of the tournament, Saturday, Marysville won 28 to 18 decision over Lancaster St. Mary's. St. Mary's was doped as a stiff opponent but proved not so dangerous. Marysville was leading 16 to 5 at the half and was never in danger during the entire contest.

Magnetic Springs playing in the first game of the day, defeated Nebron 27 to 11. New Dover defeated Mt. Sterling by a 27 to 13 tally.

Do menstrual periods make you stay-at-home certain days of every month? They needn't! And you need not endure one pang of pain if you'll accept the assistance of Mildol.

Mildol makes menstruation an incident. No pain, not even discomfort, is necessary now. Women who used to have the very hardest time have found this to be true. Mildol is a marvelous product; the work of specialists. It is not a narcotic. But it stops all pain in five to seven minutes. Taken in time, the pain never starts. All druggists have Mildol in aluminum pocket case for fifty cents, so it's folly to suffer.

Keep free from constipation! It relieves bloatness, sour and crampy stomach, bad breath, no appetite, headaches, and to break up fever and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the system clean; drink plenty of water; eat well.

We would be glad to have you pay us a visit at our home.

Do not sit and hope, but go to a drugstore and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppin. Take a dose. Just write "Syrup Peppin,"

Harding Eliminated From Tourney By Columbus South

FIRST QUARTER LEAD TOO GREAT FOR RED AND BLACK TOSERS

Lewis Is Great Defensive Star of Local Aggregation in Tourney

BY KARL R. McELROY
Sports Editor

Another year has passed away and the first week in March 1927 and Harding High School basketeers passed up another good opportunity to win a Central Ohio basketball championship.

The scene was very much the same this year as last with Harding playing the same team in the same gym. Of course a few new faces were seen in the lineup of Marion and Columbus South but on the whole, both teams were practically the same Saturday in the previous year.

This year Harding was eliminated by the team that is expected to win the title in the final round Friday and Saturday of this week. The score was Harding, 28; Columbus South, 32.

One bad period resulted in the Red and Black going down in defeat. Columbus South, taking advantage of the first period failure of the Harding defense to function, scored the points that won them the game.

The score in the first period stood 12 to 4. This lead was too great for Coach Compton's cagers to overcome although the locals managed to outscore their opponents in the remainder of the game.

Both teams battled evenly the second period with Harding scoring six points to South's five. In the third quarter Harding was outscored with the period ending 26 to 18. In the final period Harding staged a desperate attempt to overcome the lead but were unable to pull the trick.

Harding Scores First

Lewis brought the Harding fans to their feet when he scored the first basket of the game after about two minutes of play. Larson tied the score at two all with Lane making two baskets in succession. Donner and Denny each scored a basket when Evans looped another for Harding. Milleunich slipped through for a basket while Garrett missed a free throw.

Harding opened the second period with Garrett and Lewis each making free throws. Denny scored a basket and Partridge caged a foul. Lewis missed a free throw and Partridge made a basket. Donner and Milleunich accounted for three points from a basket and free throw. Cram scored a free throw and Evans ended the period with a basket.

During the first half the Harding five had six chances to score on free throws taking advantage of but two of them.

Score Freely

Both teams scored freely in the third quarter with Cram leading off with a basket. Milleunich scored a free throw which was followed by a basket from Wagner. Lewis missed a free throw but followed with a basket. Evans scored two points and Milleunich duplicated the feat. Cram caged the ball for two more points ending Harding's scoring in the period. Larson and Donner scored free throws and Milleunich looped the ball for two points to close the period.

Lane opened the final period with a basket with Cram, McAninch and Gillis cutting down the lead with buckets. Cram then missed a free throw and Denny and Donner each scored baskets. The game ended after Gillis caged a free throw.

Taking the entire contest into consideration, the local team played a great game of ball. Cram was the scoring star with seven points with the of

BASEBALL PROGRAM MAPPED OUT DURING COLUMBUS MEETING

NATIONAL AND AMERICAN LEAGUES BACKING WAR VETERANS' PLANS

Marion County will be represented in a nationwide contest to be staged this year for the junior baseball championship of the country, according to plans outlined today by L. Den Jones, member of the state American committee of the American Legion, which is in charge of arrangements.

Jones attended a meeting of the committee held at state Legion headquarters in Columbus, yesterday, when preliminary details of the baseball program were outlined.

REAL WORK TO START

S. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 5.—Herb Penwick and Joe Dugan arrived at the camp of the New York Yankees yesterday, and Hoyt Lazzetti, Connie, Keeney, Meinel and Pasco are due today. Mausser Higgins says he will use oratory and not a checkbook to line up Hoyt and Lazzetti, who are organizing a raid on the Yankee treasury. Hug declares he will not meet "unreasonable" salary demands.

With the arrival of the regulars today, real work will begin.

LAST PRACTICE

PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 5.—The Pirates will take their last practice drill here today before starting camp games. Tomorrow Manager Donie Bush will split his squad into two teams, the Hooligans and the Regulars, and put them through a regular game.

He announced the lineup today, but it is subject to revision before the teams go on the field tomorrow.

DIVIDES TEAM

F. MYERS, Fla., March 5.—The house of Mack will be divided against itself today when Connie throws his squad into the first practice game of the training camp season.

Today's battle will be the first of a series that will keep the Athletics busy all month. The varsity led by Eddie Collins will have Hauser, Bishop, Boley and Hahn in the infield and Speaker, Miller and French in the outfield.

Wednesday the Phillies will come for a game and on Thursday Ty Cobb will report.

Members of the team winning the national championship will be guests of the American and National leagues at the annual world series games in October. All of their expenses are to be paid by officials of the two major leagues.

The junior baseball project, the first of its kind in history, has the backing of both the National and American Leagues, which have set aside a fund of $60,000 to help defray expenses. Use of this fund will start when the state tournaments get under way.

Prior to that, expenses are to be paid by Legion posts and other organizations assisting in the project. Bird McGinnis Post, it was stated today, will request the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, churches and other organizations to sponsor teams.

Lands Approves

Judge K. M. Lands, commissioner of baseball, is an enthusiastic supporter of the project and has assisted the American Legion in outlining the plan. He has expressed the opinion that it promises to be a valuable aid in promoting interest in the national pastime and in benefiting boys of the country.

Should the venture work out successfully this year the junior tournament probably will be made an annual event.

Plans for the project will be reported by Jones at the next meeting of Bird McGinnis Post, when definite steps toward organizing of teams in Marion County will be taken.

220 Teams in Ohio

In order to qualify, Ohio must be represented by at least 220 teams. This quota will be attained without difficulty, according to indications at this time. Cincinnati, it was stated at yesterday's committee meeting, guarantees at least 40 teams.

The country has been divided into two sections, eastern and western. The winning teams in these sections will compete in the junior world series. Ohio is in the eastern section, where the finals will be played between Aug. 27 and 31. The eastern and western sections are subdivided into regions, Ohio being in the seventh region along with Illinois, Indiana and Michigan.

Rules adopted at this time stipulate that any boy whose seventeenth birthday does not come before Jan. 1, 1929 will be eligible for teams entered in the competition.

Contest Code

The code of sportsmanship adopted for the contest reads as follows:

"Keep the rules. Keep faith with your comrades. Keep your temper. Keep yourself fit. Keep a stout heart in defeat. Keep your pride under in victory. Keep a sound soul, a clean mind and a healthy body."

Yesterday's meeting of the state Legion Americanism committee was in charge of the chairman, Robert W. Smith of Cincinnati. Smith is a former Marion County man, having resided for a number of years at Prospect prior to the time that he enlisted in the World War. He is now prominent in affairs of the state Legion organization.

The Americanism committee of all states, headed by the national committee, have adopted the junior baseball project as the major feature of their program for this year.

FULL LIMIT NOT YET REACHED BY RECORD BREAKING ATHLETES

Olympic Coach Expects Lloyd Hahn and Sabin Carr To Do Better

BY DAVID J. WALSH

New York, March 5—When Lloyd Hahn and Sabin Carr, who set up amaz- ing outdoor pole vault records in recent days, probably have not reached the full limit of possible performance, according to a statement made to the writer today by Lawson Robertson, head coach of the American Olympic team. He declared that it would have been possible for Hahn to have bettered 15 ft. for the half mile run and pole vault respectively within Saturday night, if he had been raised to the tape the way most record-breakers have a right to expect.

As for Carr, it is Robertson's idea that he Yale man clearly proved that he can vault as high as 14 ft. 5 inches when he set a new record of 14 ft. 1 inch a week ago.

"When you get athletes like Hahn and Carr shooting for records, the limit resolves itself into the question of what else we may be able to give them in modern equipment," Robertson declared. "Pole vault records began soaring as soon as we introduced the bamboo pole twenty years ago. It has remained for a super-vaulter like Carr to make the most of the improved implement."

Hahn went to the mark on Saturday night, facing a nearly perfect course. It was a fast, springy track, banked perfectly on the turns and wide enough to prevent any congestion.

It was conceded that Hahn had to run the half mile in record time. If conditions were right. They were almost perfect, and with Sam Martin's fast early pace, Lloyd did the rest. He beat Peltier's outdoor record of 15 ft. 3 1/2 by exactly a fifth of a second.

Marion, March 5—Stimulated by strong buying demand, stocks of the highest quality in industrial stocks advanced aggressively in the market today, one of the most prominent being the men of the automobile industry. United Motor Stock Company, the market's leader, and the market's market, advanced on an unusually large volume. In fact, has the market been so persistent, as to buy in this stock alone 1,000 shares in the first hour of trading, about 900,000 shares in all. The 100 shares represented the largest amount of steel, so that these 100 shares accounted for 50 per cent of the activity of the big market.

The market has received frequent attention of late, the cord was to be cut around the short interest rates, which in the early part of February was estimated at 10 per cent. One of the reasons for such a high speculative interest is the estimated funds and earnings expansion in the output of the corporation, is the performance of that task, according to market rumors and the latest news, feeding the sledge-hammer to the market's soul. Inside buying was the rule.

LENTEN SERVICE IS HELD AT CALEDONIA

Returned Missionary Delivers Thankoffering Sermon at M. E. Church

Caledonia, March 5.—Lenten services are held at the St. Lawrence Catholic Church here Saturday morning by Rev. John Kelly of LaFave. Rev. Kelly preached a sermon "On Death," using for his text Genesis 3:19, "He number man that thou art dust and unto dust thou shalt return." Services will be held again the last Saturday in March.

A missionary sermon of interest was given by Miss Fanny Perkins at the Memorial M. E. Church yesterday at the morning worship hour. Miss Perkins who spent many years as a m-nistery at Burnab spoke on "The Three Great Religions of India." Mordechai, Hinduism and Buddhism. Miss Perkins also spoke at the night service under the auspices of the Womans Foreign Missionary Society, giving the missionary Thanksgiving message.

Large and attractive audiences were present at both services to hear the speaker discuss conditions in mission fields far of India.

At the Church of Christ there was an increased attendance at the Bible School.

The topic last night at the young peoples meeting was "What Is It In Jesus that Attracts Young People?" The meeting was conducted by Pastor Dow. The pastor, Rev. H. E. Steiner, preached two interesting sermons. The subject for the morning sermon "She Hath Done What She Could" and for the night address "If God Will Be With Me."

Hardly ever is an uplift movement well thought out. It sources in something which has no logic.
